Harlow Chorus and East London Chorus join forces with a team of outstanding soloists to bring you one of the most loved and enduring choral masterpieces.

In The Dream of Gerontius, Elgar sets to music words by John Henry Newman, tracing the journey of an ordinary man through the final hours of life and into a spiritual realm of angels and demons - music of which Elgar wrote, 'This is the best of me'.

Subject to demand, audience coaches will run from Old Harlow, via Sawbridgeworth and Bishops Stortford.

Details and booking via Harlow Chorus Box Office.
