Harlow Chorus is a Registered Charity 2010

Harlow Chorus invites you to "Feel the Spirit" with an uplifting and vibrant evening of music ranging from Charles Stanford's three motets Justorum animae, Beati quorum via and Coelos ascendit hodie, through Patrick Hadley's "mildly exotic" My beloved spake, to popular modern day compositions by Paul Spicer, Karl Jenkins and Howard Goodall whose setting of Psalm 23 is better known as the theme tune from The Vicar of Dibley.

You'll be rocking in the pews as the choir and renowned jazz and opera singer Melanie Marshall swing through John Rutter's Feel the Spirit, a luscious arrangement of seven familiar American spirituals ending with a rousing rendition of "When the Saints go marching in".
